Apron at Solís Two Porsche Drive to Offer Special Race Day Menu

Auto-inspired menu racing into destination hotel restaurant spring 2018

ATLANTA (June 11, 2018) – Apron – a full-service restaurant and vibrant bar located in Atlanta’s newest destination hotel Solís Two Porsche Drive next to the Porsche Experience Center in Hapeville, Ga. – has geared up for motorsport race season with an exclusive race day menu featuring auto-inspired food and beverage offerings. The special menu developed by Executive chef Derrick Green was created to cater to race fans’ taste for bold regional flavors, while celebrating the hotel and restaurant’s corresponding luxury automobile-themed interior design, artwork and architecture. The race day menu will be available at the restaurant only on specific motorsport race days throughout the year, with each race streamed in-restaurant.

The custom-designed race day menu will feature several dishes, including Wagyu beef sliders with smoked bacon, cheddar, and bread and butter pickles, crispy chicken sliders with Sriracha ranch and bread and butter pickles and cast iron baked macaroni and cheese featuring cheddar, parmesan and emmental, as well as Apron’s signature race day cocktail prepared with Ketel One Vodka, muddled blackberries, simply syrup and lime juice.
